The Week Ahead...

Monday: NO SCHOOL

Tuesday: We will celebrate and learn about Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. today in preschool. The children will discuss what it means to be kind and peaceful. Students will make their own MLK books, heart and hand collages and share their own dreams during centers. Our stories will include Martin Luther King Jr. by Marion Bauer & Sheila Rae the Brave by K. Henkes.

Wednesday: Our Bible Story this week is about the Good Samaritan. The children will learn about helping, sharing and showing love to others. We will also read our Kindness story, The Mitten Tree by C. Christansen and make snowman coasters for our service project. The children love to let their golden hearts shine!

Thursday: Our letter this week is Bb! We will now have covered over half of the alphabet this year! Students will learn about the letter sound and formation by making babies, letter Bb books and buzzing bees. They will also get to share the Baby Book projects they worked on at home with each other. We will read Bubble Bear by M. Higgins and The Hat by J. Brett.

Sight Words: We are very excited about our sight words and starting to learn to read words in our classroom! The kids did an excellent job this week with our first three words. We will be reviewing them and writing them independently before moving on to new ones. Our first words for your reference and at home practice are...

No, Go, So
