

Mrs. B's Newsletter 3/11/19

Upcoming this week:

Monday: St. Patrick's Day

- ◆ Today we will begin our St. Patrick's Day adventure! There may be a visit in our classroom by a sneaky leprechaun— who likes to leave a mess! We will talk about Ireland and characteristics of St. Patrick's Day.
- ◆ We will graph our favorite color of the rainbow.
- ◆ Books: Weekly Reader: When a Rainbow Shines
- ◆ Sight Word Review: write on boards
- ◆ Tuesday: Letter U u
- ◆ Our next letter is Uu— we will learn about umbrella birds, sort some letter beads, and making our own Uu's!
- ◆ Books: "10 Lucky Leprechauns" K. Helling
- ◆ Sight Word Review: Find words on leprechaun shoes
- ◆ Estimate marbles in a jar

Wednesday: Bible Story ~

Jesus Helps Blind Eyes See

- ◆ This story will help us as we learn to have faith in Jesus and God. A blind man is healed with mud on his eyes by Jesus. He believes that Jesus can heal him. We will discuss what being blind is and how it may feel.
- ◆ Books: "Green Shamrocks" E. Bunting
- ◆ Sight word review: Build words

Thursday: St. Patrick's Day

- ◆ While our classroom leprechaun will be visiting each day, today is the day he leaves a fun hunt for a treat! We will do a shamrock graph and color, make a rainbow, and make our own shamrock snack!
- ◆ Books: "Jamie O'Rourke and the Big Potato" T. dePaola and "That's What Leprechauns Do" E. Bunting

Question of the day: Would you want a pot of gold or 3 wishes if you caught a leprechaun?
