Monday

Today we will introduce letter W. We will make a walrus and a wagon, glue w's on a watermelon, and practice writing W. Our story is "Walter Warthog's Wonderful Wagon" by Barbara deRubertis. We will play a letter review game today by placing letters on the felt board.

Tuesday

Our new nursery rhyme for today is Hey, Diddle, Diddle. We will practice ab patterns, make a poster for the nursery rhyme and work on our March bulletin board craft. Our story is "Hey Diddle Diddle Hey Diddle Doodle," by Brian Moses and Jill Newton. We will compare the two stories. We will also play an I Have Who Has Shapes game.

Wednesday

We will be learning the concept of Near and Far today as well as the number 12. We will sort erasers, build towers with unifix cubes, and practice near and far. We will read "Near and Far" by Luana Mitten and Meg Greve.

Thursday

Today we will hear the story of the Three Little Pigs. We will predict and test whether objects will blow in the wind, add pigs, and practice stamping letters. We will read aloud "The True Story of the Three Little Pigs" by John Scieszka. The children will also decide what they would make a house out of if they were one of the pigs!
