MARCH

SONG:

BAA, BAA BLACK SHEEP

Baa, baa black sheep, have you any wool?
Yes sir, yes sir, three bags full!
One for the master, one for the dame,
And one for the little boy who lives down the lane.

PEEK AT THIS WEEK

This week the children will be introduced to another cute nursery rhyme, "Baa, Baa Black Sheep" and the "Kindness Lesson". We will cotton paint "Baa, Baa Black Sheep" and sort black and white sheep using tongs into matching color pens. During circle time, the children will take turns to act out the rhyme until all students have had a turn to be one of the characters.

Once again we will make our golden heart shine as we make butterflies to give to Frankfort Food Pantry. We also will spend time snipping grass.

NOTE:

Is your child ready for potty learning? Every child is different when it comes to potty learning. There is no need to rush. It will be easiest to potty train your child when he/she shows signs of readiness. Is your child telling you he/she feels uncomfortable when wet? Is your child able to pull down his/her own pants? Is your child able to sit on a potty chair for a longer period of time? Remember to keep it low key. You might like to keep a set of potty books in a basket for your child to view.
