

Mrs. K's Classroom News

The Week of January 8-11

Email: mrsk@stpeters-preschool.com

Monday

Welcome back! Today your child may bring in a special toy to share with the class! We will be talking about the New Year today. The children will make glasses, watercolor and make some new year pictures. We will read "New Years Day" by Lynn Peppas.

Today will also be the start of our calendar notebooks where the children will graph the weather, and practice letters, numbers and shapes on a daily basis.

Thursday

Today we will learn about Martin Luther King, Jr. We will read "Celebrating Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day" by Joel Kupperstein. We will discuss equality and peace. The children will watercolor a poem, make a peace book, and tell us what their dream for the world is. We will also work on the January kindness project.

Tuesday

Today we will be talking about winter. We will discuss the weather, clothes and activities associated with the season. The children will easel paint a snowman, sequence snowman 1-10, and count marshmallows in hot chocolate. We will read "The Mitten" by Jan Brett.

Wednesday

We will focus on the bible story of The Good Samaritan today. We will talk about showing compassion for others and retell the story on the felt board. The children will make a book and a poster for the story and make snowman names today.

